THESE ARE THE GENERATIONS OF
TEMPLE ISRAEL

Dedicated to

Those who have passed away
But cannot be forgotten.
... Our own loved ones
... and all the martyrs of our People.
May their souls be bound up in the Bond
of Eternal life.

The prayers in this book of Remembrance are reprinted from the Union Prayer Book and the Union Home Prayer Book published by the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

The Synagogue is the living symbol of the highest ideals of Judaism.

A contribution to Temple Israel in memory of our departed is a fitting expression of continuing loyalty to that which endeared our loved ones to us.

Out of our tears may then come a constructive effort to carry on the goodness of their lives and to bring to fulfillment that of which they dreamed.

THE MEANING OF DEATH

This is the meaning of existence;
To reconcile liberty with service,
the passing with the lasting,
To weave the threads of temporality
into the fabric of eternity.

The deepest wisdom man can attain
is to know that his destiny is to aid,
to serve.

We have to conquer in order to succumb;
We have to acquire in order to give away;
We have to triumph in order to be overwhelmed.
Man has to understand in order to believe,
to know in order to accept.

The aspiration is to obtain;
the perfection is to dispense.

This is the meaning of death:
The ultimate self-dedication to the divine.
Death so understood will not be distorted
by the craving for immortality,
for this act of giving away is reciprocity
on man's part for God's gift of life.

For the pious man ,it is a privilege to die.

...Rabbi Abraham Heschel
in
MAN IS NOT ALONE

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepard, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me,
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou hast anointed my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

THEY STILL LIVE ON EARTH IN THE ACTS OF GOODNESS
THEY PERFORMED AND IN THE HEARTS OF
THOSE WHO CHERISH THEIR MEMORY

MEMORIAL PRAYER

O God, full of compassion, You who dwell on high!

Beneath the sheltering wings of Your presence, among the holy and pure who shine as the brightness of the heavens, grant perfect rest unto the souls of our dear ones who have gone unto eternity.

Lord of mercy, bring them under the cover of Your wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life.

Be their portion, and may their repose be everlasting peace.

Amen

PRAYER IN BEREAVEMENT

O God, help me think of You in this bitter trial. You know how my heart is torn with grief. In my weakness, tested so severely by my loss, I reach unto You, Father of all life: Give me fortitude to say with Your servant Job: "The Lord has given; the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

Forgive the thoughts of my rebellious soul. Pardon me in these first hours of my grief, if I question Your wisdom and reach for things too high for me. Grant me the strength to rise above this trial, to bear with humility life's sorrows and disappointments. Be close to me, O God, who comforts the mourners. Amen.

PRAYER ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF A DEATH

O God and Father, hear me as I pray with the Psalmist of old: So teach us to number our days, that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

This day, that recalls to me the passing of my dear _____, has now come in the midst of life's daily round of tasks and duties. My thoughts are disturbed, my heart is heavy. O God, teach me the true value of this day, that more of Your wisdom may enter into my soul.

Help me to feel that my dear _____ is in Your peaceful keeping.

My dear _____ is gone; but all the goodness, the sweetness and nobility of that life I will remember. As this light burns pure and clear, so may be blessed memory of the goodness, the nobility of character of my dear _____ illumine my soul. May the hallowed influence of this day give me strength to do Your will, O God, with a steadfast, submissive and loving spirit. Amen.

ON VISITING A CEMETERY

The Lord is close to the broken in heart. He saves them that are of contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous. yet the Lord delivers him out of them all.

The Lord redeems the soul of His servants, none shall be condemned that trust in Him.

O Eternal Father, You keep faith in Your children in death as in life. You grant us the privilege of living in Your service and bestow upon us eternal peace when our toils on earth are ended. I thank You for the Blessed life of my loved one who has here been laid to rest. For the joy of companionship, for the plans and achievements and even the shared disappointments, for all of them, I humbly praise Your name.

I come now to pay homage to this loved memory. Grant to my dear one eternal peace and may he (she) be a light unto my path and a blessing day by day. Amen.

KADDISH

Extolled and hallowed be the name of God throughout the world which He has created according to His will. And may He speedily establish His kingdom of righteousness on earth.

Praise be His glorious name unto all eternity.

Praised and glorified be the name of the Holy One, though He be above all the praises which we can utter. Our guide is He in life and our Redeemer through all eternity.

Our help cometh from Him, the Creator of heaven and earth.

The departed whom we now remember have entered into the peace of life eternal. They still live on earth in the acts of goodness they performed and in the hearts of those who cherish their memory. May the beauty of their life abide among us as a loving benediction.

May the Father of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort all the bereaved among us.

Amen.

The Perpetual Memorials

Permanent Memorials For Your Loved Ones

A name plate for a departed loved one on the Memorial Tablets of our Congregation assures you of a permanent memorial.

Each year on the Sabbath following the anniversary of death, the name of the departed is read from the pulpit and Kaddish is recited.

In addition, the immediate families of the departed receive a reminder of the Yahrzeit from the Congregation.

Details may be obtained from the Temple Office.
